

SANTA FE AABC BASEBALL and SOFTBALL PROGRAM

An organization of the American Amateur Baseball Congress

Santa Fe Baseball & Softball at its Best!!!

Contact the SFAABC @ 239-6091 or www.santafeaabc.org

Dear Volunteer,

We will need managers & coaches for all levels. If you are interested, please fill out the coach's application as soon as possible. All coaches will need to qualify under the Santa Fe AABC Baseball & Softball Program requirements.

Your responsibilities will include:

- Recruiting and drafting your ballclub.
- Recruiting other APPROVED individuals to assist you with coaching duties.
- Working with your ballclub to meet overall program expectations, including but not limited to adequate practice/workout sessions; appropriate game plans and continuous improvement sessions with each athlete.
- Working with local businesses to obtain sponsorships, uniforms are designed, ordered and purchased by the individual ballclub. 100% of what you collect is reimbursed to you to use towards such purchases.
- Assigning team parent to assist with other non-coaching duties.

I sincerely thank you in advance and promise to support you throughout your season. The more coaches we have available, the more teams we can field. Communication within our program is crucial and I am available to answer any questions or concerns that you may have, don't hesitate to call me.

Without your efforts and commitment to our athletes, our program would not exist, thanks again!

Sincerely,

Tommy Martinez
Santa Fe AABC President

Role of the Coach

A coach has a strong influence on the children with whom he/she works. Therefore, it is of utmost importance that a coach in the Santa Fe AABC Baseball & Softball Program, display the qualities of good sportsmanship and attitudes. A coach should be aware of his/her opportunity to instill good attitudes and characteristics in layers while participating. A coach should be an instructor and disciplinarian to the team players as well as a friend. A coach in the Santa Fe AABC Baseball & Softball Program is expected to:

- Be committed to the philosophy of the Santa Fe AABC Baseball & Softball Program.
- Encourage all athletes, even those who are not exceptionally skilled, to participate in the program.
- Make good use of practice time for instruction of all players in the fundamental skills and rules of the game.
- Guide team members in cooperating with one another and accepting the weaknesses and strengths of all team members.
- Ensure that all players participate according to Program Expectations.
- Supervise athletes entrusted in their care so that there is supervision by the coach, assistant coach or other approved adult at all times. This includes before and after games and practices.
- Oversee the safety and maintenance of athletic equipment and playing facilities.
- Keep lines of communication open.
- Act in a mature and professional manner while exercising the duties.
- Refrain from offensive language and actions at all times.
- Be an example of respect and cooperation in relating to officials.
- Use positive sideline coaching during games and practices.
- Refrain from physically, emotionally, or verbally abusing a player at any time.
- Refrain from laying a hand upon, pushing, shoving, striking, or threatening to strike an official or being guilty of objectionable demonstration by forceful action of an official's decision. Respect the judgment of an official.
- Make sure all questions regarding rule interpretation are settled before the contest.
- Be held responsible to unruly actions or the misconduct of our own spectators.
- Refrain from publicly discussing any calls by the officials in a derogatory or abusive way.
- Attend all meetings directed by the program. If the coach is unable to attend, he/she is responsible for sending a representative.
- Always insist team shake hand with their opponents after the contest and behave with courtesy.
- Never come to a practice or game in an intoxicated condition. No smoking during games or practices.
- Submit complaints to program official if need be.
- Be current on all program requirements.
- Ensure that athletes, parents, relatives or friends conduct themselves in an appropriate manner during all events.
- Ensure that coaches, athletes, parents, relatives or friends understand that if they cause an adverse effect on the program, the president or his designee has the authority to take immediate action.
- Ensure that coaches, athletes, parents, relatives or friends understand that absolutely no one is to approach officials at any time. It is the responsibility of the official to verify all concerns.
- Complete the coaching application.
- Understand that violating program expectations will result in action taken by the president.
- All coaches will provide parents and athletes with their philosophies and expectations during the first week of practice.
